IGNORANCE OF SCRIPTURE IS IGNORANCE OF CHRIST —ST. JEROME

*A reminder that these questions invite reflection.
They don't have a definite answer.*

JOHN 21:1-14

1. Why do Peter and the others go fishing?
2. Why don't they recognize Jesus?
3. How willingly do they cast their nets again?
4. How does the disciple whom Jesus loved recognize Jesus?
5. Why does Peter jump into the water?
6. What all are the other disciples thinking and feeling?
7. What does everyone say and do as they eat?
8. What in this story connects with you?

JOHN 21:15-19

9. Do the others hear Jesus question Peter?
10. What all does Peter feel for Jesus?
11. What exactly is Jesus asking Peter to do?
12. When were you especially aware of your failings? Did you experience forgiveness for these failings?
13. What is God asking of you?

JOHN 21:1-14

The epilogue

John 21 was added to this Gospel, which explains inconsistencies like why the disciples are back in Galilee, why they've resumed their former lives, and why they don't recognize Jesus.

However, this chapter addresses important themes such as the mission of the early church, the importance of the Eucharist, the restoration of Peter, and Peter's responsibility for the community.

Cast your nets

The number seven represents wholeness or completion. These seven disciples thus represent all of Jesus' followers. They can't accomplish anything without him, however. Only by the power of his word are they successful.

These verses echo Luke 5:1-11, where a huge catch of fish represents the mission of the disciples. Now, having received the Holy Spirit (John 20), they must continue to draw others to Jesus. (Scholars aren't certain what the number 153 signifies.)

Bread of life

Just as Jesus fed the people in John 6, he now feeds the disciples. He not only sends them on mission, but nourishes them for the work ahead. Our celebration of the Eucharist also strengthens us to go forth and draw others to Christ.

JOHN 21:15-19

Forgiving and commissioning Peter

Three times during Jesus' trial, while standing around a charcoal fire (18:18), Peter denied knowing Jesus. Now Jesus formally restores Peter to good-standing. Three times Jesus asks Simon, (Peter's old name), to formally declare his love.

In John 10 Jesus spoke of himself as the good shepherd who would lay down his life for his sheep. In John 13 Jesus commanded his disciples to love one another as I have loved you. Jesus tells Peter to lead the church with this same self-sacrificing love.

Peter's future

Jesus contrasts the freedom Peter has enjoyed up to now with the demands of leadership. Peter was free to bind up his garment and jump from the boat into the water (v.7), but eventually he'll be bound by others and led to his death.

In John 13:36-38 Peter expressed his desire to follow and give his life for Jesus. Now that he's been forgiven and commissioned by the risen Lord, it's time to follow through on his profession of love. This love will lead to martyrdom.

PRAYER

adapted from Prayers for the Pope (Roman Missal, 1985)

God our Father,
source of eternal life and truth,
give to your shepherd Pope Francis
a spirit of courage and right judgment,
a spirit of knowledge and love.

By governing faithfully those entrusted to his care
may he, as successor to Peter,
build your Church into a sacrament
of unity, love, and peace for all the world.

We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Fr Peter's Sunday Reflection

Theme: May we not lose the sight of our call and our vocation as Christians.

In the first reading of today we saw the apostles rejoicing for having been found worthy to share in the sufferings of Christ because of the way the Jewish authorities treated them. Their boldness to teach and preach the risen Christ came about after He visited them and gave them authority to preach through the power of the Holy Spirit. This boldness and power to preach Jesus is what we all received from the day we were baptized and in all the sacraments we receive as Christians.

So, we should be bold enough to proclaim Christ in season and out of season 2 Timothy 4:2. This is because what we have received is not the spirit of fear and intimidation Romans 8:15 and 2 Timothy 1:7. This was the reason why the apostles stood firm before the court and Sanhedrin and were able to defend their faith. 1 Peter 3:15, asked us to be ready to defend the faith and hope we have in Christ Jesus. The apostles never allowed themselves to be intimidated or silenced by the chief priests and the Sanhedrin. Let us not be ashamed to preach the truth of Christ.

In the gospel of today, we saw the apostles lamenting that even after having labored for the whole night, they caught nothing. This was because they left the primary duty of preaching the risen Lord for their own business. Christ told them in Mt 4:19 and Mark 1:17 that hence their business is only to catch men for him and not fish. However, when the Lord visited them, and when they obeyed the instructions of the Lord, they were able to catch huge amounts of fish, only by simple obedience to the word and instructions of the Lord.

Dear friends, through the obedience to the will, the commandments and instructions of God, our earthly problems will be solved, and God will continue to take care of his own. In 1 Sam 15:22-23 God said that what he desires more is our obedience and not sacrifice. If we do not obey God, we are being rebellious and if we are rebellious to God, it does not always end well.

Brothers and sisters, let us always focus on our call as Christians and be obedient to the commandments of God. Peter and his companions experienced frustrations because they abandoned their mission of catching men for Christ to do their own biddings. We fail most times because we are in the wrong place or doing the right thing at the wrong time. If we abandon the will of God and our call as Christians, we may labor in vain all night and all day long. Christ said in John 15:5 that apart, separate or cut off from me, you can do nothing. May our selfishness not separate us from Christ. Amen.

Dear Fellow Parishioners:

My name is Kate Rudmann, and I am a parishioner at Saint Lawrence. I have exciting news about where God is calling me to serve for the upcoming year!

Along with 140 other young men and women, I will spend this upcoming school year serving as a Catholic missionary for NET Ministries. For over 40 years, NET Ministries has shared the Gospel with over 2.2 million young people, allowing them to encounter the person of Christ through evangelization and discipleship.

As a NET Missionary, I am responsible for forming a team of ministry partners who will support the work of NET Ministries with monthly or one-time gifts totaling to a minimum of $7,000-8,000. This support helps offset expenses for my training, healthcare, transportation, equipment, and a small monthly stipend. I am asking you to partner with me this year to help me reach this minimum funding goal. All gifts are tax-deductible. You can send gifts to NET Ministries at 110 Crusader Ave W, West Saint Paul, MN 55118-4427. Make checks payable to NET Ministries and indicate that the donation is for Kathryn Rudmann. You can also donate online at www.netusa.org/supportamissionary and select Kathryn Rudmann the team member box.

If you have any questions or would like more information you can contact me at (740)532-8940

kathryn.rudmann@netusa.org

I am very grateful for the support I've received from the parishioners of this parish. Please keep me in your prayers and know that you remain in mine.

Sincerely,

Kate Rudmann

RETREAT OPPORTUNITIES

A FAMILY WEEKEND CONFERENCE UNLIKE ANY OTHER October 10-12, 2025 Discover the truth and beauty of the Catholic Church at the Totus Tuus Family Conference. You'll be drawn—along with your family—into an encounter with Jesus that will set your heart on fire. For more info call disciple members Bill or Christie 740-579-2984 or visit afc.org

Life's Healing Journey Retreat May 9-11 at St Ann 310 3rd Ave, Chesapeake, OH. The retreat will be led by Fr. Andrew Torma, MSC (Missionary of the Sacred Heart), who is based in Center Valley, Pa. A process of healing from inner hurts, conflicts and disappointments will be divided into seven talks, hymns or chants that match each topic, and small group sharing and prayer. "Jesus heals," says Fr. Torma, "if we invite him to work in our hearts and help us to forgive both ourselves and those who may have hurt us. Wounds suffered at any age, including early childhood, may fester inside us until we identify them, and release them into God's loving hands." The retreat is open to all. It is broadly Christian in scope and draws upon relevant scriptures. To register or to seek additional information, please phone the coordinator, John Patrick Grace, at 304-617-1292 or email him at publishersplace@gmail.com Cost for the retreat is $65, which includes two breakfasts and one lunch, plus snacks.
